America's response to World War II was the most extraordinary mobilization of an idle economy in the history of the world. During the war 17 million new civilian jobs were created, industrial productivity increased by 96 percent, and corporate profits after taxes doubled. Free market economics is not about a few winners doing really well, and then prosperity trickling down to everyone else. America's Army Proving Grounds. Democratic Republic of the Ostregals (RDO) 011500Z OCT 15: Soldiers, for the past two years you have been sharpening your skills in preparation of the order to deploy. Over the past couple of years Bank of America has embarked on a strategic plan to embrace a software-defined, incredible agile and flexible infrastructure environment that has reaped ...
