

Download Leadville: Colorado's Magic City

Some locals say that Leadville really is about 2 miles closer to heaven. At 10,152 feet, it's the highest incorporated city in North America and is flanked by Colorado highest fourteeners: Mount Elbert and Mount Massive. Top Colorado winter sports events encompass speed, carnage, adventure, freezing weather, aerial feats of magic and pure athleticism. Competing in Colorado winter sports events requires grit and sometimes a few loose screws. Here are a few suggestions for kids 10 and under — from children's museums and zoos to hot-springs pools, tubing hills and wildlife experiences. Current Issue of UltraRunning. UltraRunning March 2019. A runner passes through the Horseshoe Bluff area, an old quarry on the shore of the Mississippi River, during the Mines of Spain 100 in Dubuque, Iowa.