

Download The Next Step For Communities Teaching Entrepreneurship

In 1970, a national survey of business schools found just 16 courses offered in entrepreneurship. Since then, entrepreneurial education has taken off like the Internet craze. Karl Vesper ...Sexual exploitation and abuse represents a catastrophic failure of protection. It brings harm to those whom we – the UN, NGOs or other international organizations – are mandated to protect and jeopardizes the reputation of our organizations. The School of Business and Entrepreneurship (SoBE) prepares students to become active participants in their communities and encourages them to reach creative solutions so they work effectively and efficiently in their profession. Overview. The Maryland Social Entrepreneur Corps (MSEC) is a unique study and internship program for undergraduate students to spend their summer in a Latin American country to observe, address, and implement sustainable business solutions to poverty.